We acknowledge the original inhabitants of this area, the sduhubš* people, and their successors, the Tulalip Tribes. Since time immemorial, they have hunted, fished, gathered on, and taken care of these lands and waters. We respect their sovereignty, their right to self-determination, and honor their sacred spiritual connection with the land and water. In Everett Public Schools, we strive to create equitable outcomes and build a culture of inclusive belonging for all students, teachers, staff, and community.

- Seagulls! Did you know our annual MLK assembly is this Thursday? Be prepared for our 2025 theme: Unity in Diversity! If you are involved in the assembly or are in BSU, you must come to afterschool rehearsals today from 2:15-5pm! We will meet in A124, Mr Ellis room at 2:15pm.
- Attention all EHS Siblings - today is the day. Please come with your sibling to A 306 afterschool to get a photo taken if you would like to be included in the sibling section of the yearbook. Photos will also be taken on Thursday in A306. See you this afternoon.
- Congratulations to all the students who entered the PTA Reflections contest this year. The theme was "Accepting Imperfections" In Visual Art, Charlie Oyler and Madeline Sakai each won a 1st place. Honorable Mentions went to Lyla Peterson, Oliver Adamis, Shalea St. Louis and Zoey Bond. Lillian Heilman received an honorable mention in both visual arts and photography. In the Literature category we have two first place winners: Congratulations to Lucy Bower, and Nneoma Anamelechi. Fern Calderwood received an honorable mention in this category. Finally, a shout out to Kenley King who submitted their work in the dance division and earned an honorable mention. The work of Charlie Oyler and Madeline Sakai will be forwarded on to the state level competition. Good luck artists!
- There is a DECA meeting this coming Thursday in room B-315 – come celebrate our Area competition success!
- Buy a cup of cocoa for $1.50 at The Nest and get a cookie for free! Open both lunches.
- Freshmen! Upload your SCIENCE assignments today, in Room S205, after school at our January Eat and Complete.
- There will be an informational softball meeting with Coach Millar on Thursday, January 16th, from 2:15pm to 2:45pm. If you are interested in turning out this spring, please attend this meeting!
- If you are attending the final First Chapter Friday check-in meeting, head to the library now.
