We acknowledge the original inhabitants of this area, the sduhubš* people, and their successors, the Tulalip Tribes. Since time immemorial, they have hunted, fished, gathered on, and taken care of these lands and waters. We respect their sovereignty, their right to self-determination, and honor their sacred spiritual connection with the land and water. In Everett Public Schools, we strive to create equitable outcomes and build a culture of inclusive belonging for all students, teachers, staff, and community.

- Hello students of Everett High School, this week we will share some famous quotes by Latinos for Hispanic Heritage Month, and this quote is by Selena Quintanilla. “If you’re gonna be somebody, you need to be a leader and not a follower”.
- Hey seagulls! Today marks ONE WEEK away from our homecoming spirit week! Each day next week has a theme, and you dress up according to that spirit day. For more information on spirit week, check your school emails or the fliers and posters around school, but here’s a hint: a week from today, you can wear PAJAMAS or COMFY CLOTHES to school—if you’re doing that already, well then, congrats! You already have your outfit ready to go for next Monday, too.
- If you haven’t pre-purchased your yearbook, you still have time! Sales end September 29th. Yearbooks are $65 with ASB and $70 without.
- This Thursday, eat your lunch in the Library Makerspace and talk about what you are reading with the other Seagull Readers. Sign-up through your email.
- This is the last week to sign up for our First Chapter Friday kick-off meeting! Check your school email for sign-up information.
- Homecoming is Saturday, Oct 4th! If you have plans to bring an outside guest to homecoming, you NEED to have an outside guest form filled out by the DEADLINE, this FRIDAY, September 26th. Outside guest will have to pay $25. Tickets will go on sale Thursday, September 25th.
- Are you looking for something to wear to the Homecoming dance? Come visit Sammy's Closet! We have dresses, and other dress up options! Sammy's is open before and after school, and during lunches. Get excited for a great Homecoming week!
