We acknowledge the original inhabitants of this area, the sduhubš* people, and their successors, the Tulalip Tribes. Since time immemorial, they have hunted, fished, gathered on, and taken care of these lands and waters. We respect their sovereignty, their right to self-determination, and honor their sacred spiritual connection with the land and water. In Everett Public Schools, we strive to create equitable outcomes and build a culture of inclusive belonging for all students, teachers, staff, and community.

- Hello, students of Everett High School, this week we will share some famous quotes by Latinos for Hispanic Heritage Month, and this quote is by Lin-Manuel Miranda: “I am the one thing in life I can control. I am inimitable – I am an original.”
- Seagulls! It’s officially that time, and I hope you’re ready to dress up for our Homecoming Spirit Week! On Monday, September 29th, wear your favorite pajamas for “Sleepless in Seattle.” On Tuesday, September 30th, come to school in your Seattle sports gear to represent your favorite sports team. A team you’re ON counts! For Wednesday, October 1st, show up in your best throwback or thrifted clothes. On Thursday, October 2nd, wear your assigned class color: Freshmen wear purple, Sophomores wear green, Juniors wear blue, and seniors wear pink! Teachers and staff wear yellow. And of course, on Friday, October 3rd, we wear Blue and Gold! Check your school email and keep up with TheBeakNews on Instagram for more information about our spirit week and lunchtime activities happening every day next week.
