

Good morning, Gateway! Welcome to the Gateway Broadcast News (GBN). Today is Friday, February 14, 2025.

_____ The day is here! And better yet, it's Valentine's day! Spread the love, give your kindness, and be happy.

_____ Looking for something to do over Mid-Winter Break? Why not write a poem for our annual yearbook poetry contest. The winning poems will be included in this year's yearbook, and you'll have bragging rights for being a published author. Remember to email your poems to Mrs. Stoskopf by next Friday. Good luck!

_____ Today ASB is selling candy grams during all lunches as well as before school in the main hallway near the student store! Buy a $1 candy gram to send to a friend or secret crush to be delivered on Friday, February 21!

_____ Jackson High School National Honor Society is offering free tutoring to all students in person, virtually, or hybrid. Check out the post in the rotating gallery on our website for instructions on how to sign up.

_____ The following clubs meet next Wednesday: Fandom, Musical Theatre, and Study. Remember to arrange transportation in advance.

_____ There will be no AV Club next Thursday, February 20.

_____ Yesterday our 7th grade Girls Basketball Team built a lead with trapping defense and fast break points. Throughout the game everyone played, worked hard, and helped each other, including scoring by Tanya S, Calista J, Sage O, Lilly B, Ivory W, and Penelope G, winning by a final of 35-13. Way to go girls!!

_____ The 8th grade girls were shorthanded but battled yesterday against Olympic View. Missing 3 players, they fought hard but came up short 49 to 26. Points were scored by Camille, Courtlyn, Sarah and Zainab.

_____ Co-Ed Wrestling starts next Wednesday, February 19; this is a no cut sport open to all students. Pick up instructions from the kiosk outside the counseling Office and sign up today.

_____ Have a fun long winter weekend!

Remember, Students, to be kind and respectful – it's the GATEWay!
