_____ Last night the 7th grade boys basketball team lost a tough game to a solid Evergreen team. Kai Misner score 5 quick points at the end of the first half to pull the Guardians within 4 but Evergreen pulled away in the 2nd half. Kai scored 13 points. Liam Arnold hit a bit three and Tanush Punna contributed a couple of big buckets. Hayden Kallshian and Jake Vaughan played tough defense and Tarak Pusuluri collected key rebounds.

_____ Last night the 8th grade boys played their first home game against an outstanding team from Evergreen. While the final score showed Evergreen winning, Gateway played fantastic. In the high energy game, Ayaan R. led all scorers with 17 points. Ankush and Gautum chipped in with baskets of their own and defensive players of the game were Griffin Hare, Ishant Ram and Ethan Yin.

_____ The volleyball teams faced a tough opponent at Evergreen last night. Unfortunately, the 7th grade team lost their match, falling 2 sets to 1, but they showed great improvement in the final set. The 8th grade team was able to come from behind after losing the first set, and won the final 2 sets to win the match. Great job Guardians, strategizing together and setting up plays!

_____ Today we have home Basketball games at North Middle School, and home Volleyball matches versus North; these teams will be dismissed at the regular time. We also have Soccer games versus Harbour Pointe at Kamiak High School. Soccer team members will be dismissed at 2:20. Show up if you can for the 3:45 games and support our teams. Go GUARDIANS!

Remember, Students, to be kind and respectful – it's the GATEWay!
